Session 10 - How to Have Life-Changing Dates with God

1. What three elements has Katharine found make a date with God life-changing?
(See Living Loved p. 135.)
2. What are some examples of “doing” that you’ve experienced in a close relationship on earth--either on a date or an adventure with family or friends?
How did the shared experience help you bond?
3. How have you engaged in “sharing” in a relationship on earth (or heaven)? How did sharing your hearts impact your relationship?
4. Have you ever consciously united your spirit with God’s? If so, what are some ways you’ve experienced it? (See Living Loved p. 136.)
5. Of the three elements--doing, sharing, and uniting*--which one comes most naturally to you? Why do you think Katharine recommends including all three?
What would be missing in a relationship without one of them?

* In the video, Katharine calls the third element “expressing” your love. The book changed that term to “uniting” your spirits to make clear that we don’t mean talking about your love for each other. It’s taking action to express your love--or simply uniting your spirits in an act of love.
